

Daniel O. Rose, Partner

Daniel O. Rose

212-973-3414

drose@kreindler.com

Office: 750 Third Avenue
New York, NY 10017

Admitted to Bar:

The State of New York

The State of New Jersey

U.S. District Courts in New York,
New Jersey, Michigan, Illinois and Florida

U.S. Court of Appeals for the Second and Fourth Circuits

Daniel Rose joined Kreindler & Kreindler LLP in 1997 and became a partner in 2004. He specializes in aviation, maritime and products liability accident litigation.

Mr. Rose has a Bachelor of Arts degree in political science from Binghamton University and is a graduate of Fordham University Law School, where he was on the Dean's List and a member of the Fordham International Law Journal. After law school, he served as Law Clerk to United States District Court Judge Paul V. Gadola in the Eastern District of Michigan.

Before attending law school, Mr. Rose served in the United States Navy as a carrier-based attack pilot on board the U.S.S. Independence, where he participated in Desert Shield.

Mr. Rose is a licensed commercial multi-engine airplane and seaplane pilot with instrument ratings. He has accumulated over 1,500 hours of flight time.

Mr. Rose has handled numerous commercial airline, commuter, military and general aviation crash cases, including the American Airlines Flight 587, SwissAir Flight 111, Comair 5191 and Colgan/Continental Flight 3407 litigations. He has prosecuted numerous product liability cases involving a wide range of aviation products including engines, fuel systems, autopilot systems, avionics and flight control systems against various defendants including Boeing, McDonnell Douglas, Airbus, Raytheon, Beech, Cirrus, Cessna, Mitsubishi and Piper.

Mr. Rose has also prosecuted numerous maritime negligence and wrongful death claims under the Jones Act, the Death On the High Seas Act and the General Maritime Law against various defendants including Lockheed Martin, Vulcan Materials, Bean, Moran and other maritime employers as well as passenger claims against cruise lines such as Princess and Carnival and claims arising out of the tour boat capsizing on Lake George.

Daniel O. Rose (continued)

Mr. Rose has also prosecuted numerous products liability cases involving automotive defects including claims against Ford, General Motors, Nissan and Volvo.

Mr. Rose has tried cases in federal and state courts.

Mr. Rose is admitted to the bars of New York and New Jersey, the United States District Courts for the Southern, Eastern and Northern Districts of New York, the District of New Jersey, the Western District of Michigan, the Northern District of Illinois and the Northern District of Florida. He is also admitted to the Second Circuit Court of Appeals, where he has successfully argued appeals. He has appeared pro hac vice in numerous courts throughout the United States.

Mr. Rose is the current Chair of the American Bar Association, Tort Trial and Insurance Practice Section, Aviation & Space Law Committee and the current Chair of the American Association for Justice ("AAJ") Aviation Law Section; and is a member of the AAJ Admiralty Law Section; the Association of the Bar of the City of New York, Aeronautics Committee; the Lawyer-Pilots Bar Association and the Aircraft Owners and Pilots Association.

Mr. Rose is an approved volunteer pilot for the Veterans Airlift Command (www.veteransairlift.org) where he flies wounded veterans of Iraqi Freedom and Enduring Freedom (Afghanistan) and their families for medical and other compassionate purposes.