Dan Rose, Kreindler partner and veteran Navy pilot, has been appointed to the Plaintiffs' Steering Committee for the litigation resulting from the January 2025 Washington, D.C. midair collision over the Potomac River between an Army helicopter and an American Eagle jet. Kreindler represents 34 victims from that tragic incident. Dan also leads the team of Kreindler attorneys representing dozens of victims from the 2026 fatal runway crash at LaGuardia Airport between an arriving Air Canada jet and a NY/NJ Port Authority fire truck. He was also appointed Lead Counsel for all personal injury and wrongful death litigation arising from the 2024 Francis Scott Key Bridge Collapse tragedy which resulted in confidential settlements for the victims. Kreindler represented most of the victims following that disaster. Previously, Dan was also appointed to the Plaintiffs' Executive Committee for the Ethiopian Airlines Flight 302 Boeing 737 MAX investigation against Boeing and other defendants. Dan is a licensed commercial multi-engine airplane and seaplane pilot with instrument ratings. He is an active pilot and has accumulated over 3,000 hours of flight time. His focus is in aviation, maritime, and products liability accident litigation. Before law school, Mr. Rose served in the United States Navy as a carrier-based attack pilot on board the U.S.S. Independence where he participated in Operation Desert Shield.
