Evan joined Kreindler & Kreindler LLP in 2012. Since then, he has distinguished himself representing individuals and families in a variety of cases in state and federal courts, with a focus on complex products liability cases. Evan has been appointed to the Plaintiffs' Steering Committee for the litigation resulting from the January 2025 midair collision over the Potomac River between an Army helicopter and American Eagle flight 5342. Kreindler & Kreindler represents 34 victims from that tragic incident. He has played an active role in litigation arising from numerous military, general aviation, commercial aviation and train accidents. Evan is also heavily involved in the firm's representation of former NFL players and their families in claims through the NFL Concussion Settlement Program.

> Evan has played a key role in representing the families of individuals killed in the crash of UPS Airlines Flight 1354, representing former NFL players and their families in Concussion Settlement Program claims, and in the May 2015 derailment of an Amtrak train in Philadelphia.

Evan has played a key role in representing the families of individuals killed in the crash of UPS Airlines Flight 1354, the crash of a TMB 900 aircraft that claimed the lives of prominent Rochester real estate developer Larry Glazer and his wife and fellow entrepreneur Jane Glazer, as well as the May 2015 derailment of an Amtrak train in Philadelphia, and the February 2015 derailment of a Metro North train near Valhalla, New York.

> Truly appreciate all the effort of you and your team to get us across the finish line. The trauma and injuries will always be with us, but appreciate that this part is over, knowing that we have some financial security for now and for the future.
